ARTICLE II

The period of its duration shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes within the meaning of and pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or under the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law), including but not limited to the purposes of: (1) making grants to economically-challenged individuals who have suffered severe mobility impairment due to injury or disease, where such grants will allow such individuals to access exoskeletons and bionic technology designed to augment and increase their overall mobility, happiness and quality of life; (2) making grants to hospitals or rehabilitation centers, where such grants will allow these organizations to provide direct access to exoskeletons and bionic technology to patients who have suffered a medical condition involving severe mobility impairment; (3) educating the general public regarding the nature of exoskeletons and bionic technology, and the significant and life-changing benefits of such technology on individuals who suffer from any type of severe mobility impairment; (4) promoting scientific research designed to improve the efficacy and impact of exoskeletons and bionic technology on such individuals, where such research will be made available to the general public; and (5) receiving contributions from individuals, corporations, government agencies and other institutions who wish to support one or more of the activities described above.

ARTICLE IV

A. No part of the income or net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any member, director or officer of the corporation or any other private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes, and reimbursement may be made for any expenses incurred for the corporation by any officer, director, agent or employee, or any other person or corporation, pursuant to and upon authorization of the Board of Directors); and provided further that no member, director or officer of the corporation, or any other private individual shall be entitled to share in any distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation or otherwise. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, except as otherwise provided in section 501(h) of the Code. The corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

B. No part of the assets of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any organization whose income or net earnings or any part thereof inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or other individual or any substantial part of the activities of which consists of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

C. Upon dissolution of the corporation, all of its assets shall be paid over or transferred to one or more exempt organizations of the kind described in section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and with purposes similar to those of the corporation, as determined by the corporation's board of directors.

D. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, this corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization which is tax exempt under the provisions of section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

E. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles during any period that the corporation is a "private foundation" within the meaning of section 509 of the Code, the corporation shall be required to distribute its income for each taxable year of the corporation at such time and in such manner as not to subject the corporation to tax under section 4942 of the Code; and the corporation shall be prohibited from engaging in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) of the Code, from retaining any excess business holdings in violation of the provisions of section 4943(c) of the Code, from making any investments in such manner as to subject the corporation to tax under section 4944 of the Code, and from making any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945(d) of the Code.
